

When we think of Brazil, most of us immediately conjure up visions of Rio's famous Carnival. Few of us are aware of the poverty and hopelessness that faces much of the population of this beautiful country and most importantly, it's children!

Fabricio Junqueira Moraes and Jess Gardner are hosting a special fundraising event to benefit the Dreams Can Be Foundation

A Stroll Through The Sidewalks of Rio

An Extraordinary and Fun Happy Hour, Brazilian Style!

Friday September 28, 2007
6:30pm - 10ish

464 Montgomery Ferry Rd. NE
Atlanta, GA 30324

Please RSVP to fabriciojmoraes@gmail.com

Entertainment includes a Brazilian Carnival atmosphere along with an informal showing of the unique and colorful Spring 2008 couture by Brazilian designer, Lana Neumeyer.

We are sure you and everyone attending will leave with a new sense of Brazil.

